

The K-Love radio station is very important to my whole family. We would lose a great help to us if they were unable to broadcast any more. For my children it is the best music for them and they love it. It would hurt our community to not have this type of radio station. They provide a very needed service of hope and help to people. We must keep K-LOVE operating for the good of so many. Thank you.